

Atyopsis

The French Atyopsis Duo is founded in 2008 by the saxophonist Alexandre SOUILLART and the pianist Matthieu ACAR. The both artists met themselves in the Paris Conservatoire (CNSMDP). They decided to share their passion for chamber music beyond original pieces from the repertoire for this kind of formation.

Open on all repertoires, the Duo recently performed an historic program in the Paris Musée d'Orsay Auditorium. and piano.

This program is composed by original works for saxophone and piano. It includes a serie of pieces for four saxophones from the middle of the 18th century (age when the saxophone was created) to the beginning of the 20th century.

The Duo is also very attracted by the music of the 20th and 21st centuries. In January 2010, Atyopsis produced a new program "Autour des Légendes" ("Around Legends") at the National Portrait Gallery. Impressionist works are juxtaposed to the other more modern works.

In the future, Atyopsis wants to extend the duet nucleus in other collaborations with other partners in order to share, multiply experiences and meeting around new projects.
